The musical score is written for a song in G major (one sharp). It consists of four systems of music, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano part features a consistent bass line of eighth notes and a treble part with longer notes and some grace notes. Chord diagrams for D, C, and G are provided at the beginning of the first two systems. The lyrics are: "-er. Oh we can be He -", "-roes just for one day.", and "I,".

System 1: The vocal line begins with a half rest, followed by a quarter note G, then a half note A, and a quarter note B. The piano accompaniment starts with a D chord in the treble and a G chord in the bass. The lyrics are "-er. Oh we can be He -".

System 2: The vocal line continues with a half rest, followed by a quarter note G, then a half note A, and a quarter note B. The piano accompaniment continues with the same bass line and treble part. The lyrics are "-roes just for one day.".

System 3: The vocal line begins with a half rest, followed by a quarter note G, then a half note A, and a quarter note B. The piano accompaniment continues with the same bass line and treble part. The lyrics are "I,".

System 4: The vocal line begins with a half rest, followed by a quarter note G, then a half note A, and a quarter note B. The piano accompaniment continues with the same bass line and treble part. The lyrics are "I,".
