The score is written for guitar and piano. The guitar part includes a vocal line and a chord progression. The piano part provides a harmonic accompaniment. The key signature is B major (two sharps). The time signature is 4/4. The score is divided into four systems, each with a guitar staff and a piano staff. The first system contains the first two lines of the vocal melody. The second system contains the next two lines. The third system contains the next two lines. The fourth system contains the final two lines, ending with a double bar line. The chords are indicated above the guitar staff. The piano part consists of a right-hand melody and a left-hand bass line. The right-hand melody often plays chords or single notes, while the left-hand bass line provides a steady accompaniment. The overall mood is contemplative and melodic.
