I look at you, — you look at me. —

— (You can't tell me you ain't feel - in' but - ter - flies.) — It's ob - vi - ous — there's some chem - is - try. —

— (I think I know it when it feels — so — right.) — Girl, I want - ed so — long to know. —

Fm⁷ E^b B^bm¹¹

Now you're tell - in' me you got - ta let it go. (Don't tell me I have to start all o - ver a - gain.) I nev - er thought this day would come.

D^b(add9) E^b D^bmaj⁷ A^bmaj⁷

Fm⁷ E^b D^bmaj⁷ A^bmaj⁷

(This is some-thing that I want - ed in my life.) I re - al - ize that you're the one.
(Don't let no - bod - y tell you what to do.) Why they can't just let us be hap - py.

Fm⁷ E^b D^bmaj⁷ A^bmaj⁷

(And you're tell - in' me it's time to say good-bye.) What's in - side of my heart, it ain't gon - na change,
(I don't wan - na find some - bod - y new.) If you know what's real ly in your heart,

Fm⁷ E^b B^bm¹¹

— so it should-n't be so eas - y to walk _ a - way. (You feel _ it, I feel _ it, — then _ don't _ let them tear _ us _ a - part. ('Cause you feel _ it, I feel _ it,
