My town was a waste-land. Full of cages, full of fences, pa-geant queens and big pre-tend-ers.
 It came like a post-card— picture per-fect, shin-y fam-'ly, hol-i-day pep-per-mint can-dy.

But for some it was par-a-dise. _____
 But for him it's _____ ev-'ry day. _____

My boy was a mon-tage, _____ a slow mo-tion love po-tion, jump-ing off things in the o-cean.
 So I peered through a win-dow, _____ a deep por-tal, time trav-el, all the love we un-rav-el
